

Friday 13th February

World Book Day

Dear parents and carers,

This year, World Book Day is on Thursday 5th March and, as in previous years, we will be celebrating in school with a range of activities. Throughout the day, children will take part in reading events in their classes. In addition to this, there will be an opportunity for children to read and share book recommendations with children from another year group.

World Book Day will be a non-uniform day, and children are invited to come into school either dressed in their own clothes, or as a favourite book character if they would like to. If you have any costumes at home you no longer need, please feel free to donate them to the kindness rail in the school foyer.

As in previous years, children will be given a £1 voucher at the end of the day which they can either spend at local book shops or supermarkets in exchange for one of the specially produced World Book Day books or use for part payment of books costing more. A link to this years' specially commissioned books can be found here.

We look forward to celebrating World Book Day with your children; thank you for your continued support.
